Learn this Hallowe'en rhyme by heart

Witch, witch, where do you live?
In the very old house next to the cliff.

Witch, witch, what do you eat?
Spiders and frogs, they are my meat.

Witch, witch, what do you drink?
Vampires' blood as red as ink.

Witch, witch, where do you sleep?
In the roof of the house where the little mice creep.

Witch, witch, where do you fly?
Up in the sky where I hear the bats cry.

Hallowe'en recipes

Write a recipe for a Hallowe'en drink

The children mix a milkshake for a Hallowe'en party. It tastes awful. Why?

Find out the ingredients that taste good and those that taste bad in a milkshake and write them into the boxes below. Your teacher will help you.

good	bad

Spooky pictures

Draw pictures, talk and write about them

Each of you should draw a spooky Hallowe'en picture. Make an exhibition and talk about the pictures. Examples:

I like the spooky skeleton in your picture, and ....

I like the three spooky spiders and the cat, ...

and I like the spooky witch with the big black hat....
